In New Jersey, most workers have paid leave to care for their own health as well as for loved ones' health. You may have the right to leave under the NJ Earned Sick Leave Law and/or Paid Family & Medical Leave

This includes when you have to stop working to:

-Care for your own or a loved one's physical or mental health (including caring for chosen family)

-Care for yourself or a loved one after gender affirming surgery

-Bond with a new child

-Cope with domestic or sexual violence

-Care for yourself during pregnancy and childbirth recovery
